

CHAPMAN

Senior Vice President/Wealth Adviser, Morgan Stanley, Washington, D.C.

Latta Chapman is a senior vice president and wealth adviser in the Washington, D.C. office of Morgan Stanley, where she develops customized asset management solutions for high net worth individuals and foundations. She has served on the advisory committee of Morgan Stanley's Women's Business Exchange and is one of the firm's top female advisers. Since 1992, she has served as the NFRW's financial adviser. Her articles on investing have appeared in many publications, including The Republican Woman magazine.