

GLASSMAN

Chief of Staff, California Sen. Jim Battin

For 13 years, Kim Glassman has served as chief of staff and campaign manager for California Sen. Jim Battin. Previously, she was an aid to U.S. Congressman Al McCandless and a consultant to many state and local campaigns. At the grassroots level, Glassman serves as president of the Lincoln Club of Palm Springs, is an appointed member of the California Republican Party, and is active in many local Republican organizations in the Coachella Valley. She and her husband, Joel, reside in Palm Desert with their two young children.
