

DR. JULIO GONZALEZ

Julio Gonzalez, M.D., is a board-certified orthopedic surgeon with the Orthopaedic Center of Venice in Florida.

In addition to being affiliated with several medical associations, he is an executive committee member of the Florida Orthopaedic Society, founder of the "Journal of Orthopaedic History," and secretary of the Sarasota Medical Political Action Committee. He recently authored a publication titled, "Health Care Reform: The Truth."

Dr. Gonzalez earned his medical degree from the University of Miami School of Medicine in 1990, and served as a flight surgeon in the U.S. Navy from 1991-95. While serving a fellowship in knee reconstructive surgery and sports medicine with the Jewett Orthopaedics Clinic in 2000 and 2001, he served as the assistant team physician for the Orlando Magic, the Orlando Solar Bears hockey team and the University of Central Florida football and basketball teams.

Dr. Gonzalez is married and has two children. He enjoys writing and scuba diving.