

VINCENT HARRIS

Vincent Harris, Founder of Harris Media, LLC has more than six years of online experience. He is a frequent guest speaker on a variety of New Media issues and has traveled to multiple states to teach candidates and elected officials how to utilize the Internet.

In March of 2007 Vincent was hired by the campaign of Gov. Mike Huckabee to serve as one of two staff specializing in online communications. Following the campaign, Vincent was hired by Senator John Cornyn to serve as Internet Director where he oversaw the first consolidation of conservative Texas bloggers.

Vincent founded and currently contributes at TooConservative.com, a popular Northern Virginia based site which garners more than 45,000 unique visitors a month.

In addition to managing the company, Vincent's current focus is as the Internet Director for Bob McDonnell's gubernatorial race, and as Director of New Media at the National Republican Senatorial Committee.

Vincent is a world traveler who has visited more than twenty countries in Europe, Africa, and South America. He is a graduate of Baylor University, and is currently doing graduate work at Georgetown University in Washington.
